IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND RULES GOVERNING SINGLE REGISTRATION INTO THE CDHPR

1. The Canine Developmental Health and Performance Registry is an independent canine registry. The CDHPR is affiliated with United Kennel Club, Inc., in so much that dogs enrolled within the CDHPR may be considered eligible for future registration with UKC.
2. All applications for single registration into the CDHPR must be submitted on a CDHPR application form which is furnished free of charge. CDHPR single registration applications are available on the CDHPR website at www.cdhpr.com. It is suggested applicants make a copy of the completed CDHPR single registration application to keep for their records. Once submitted, all applications, photographs, copies of pedigrees, registration certificates become property of the CDHPR and will not be returned. Additional fees will apply for requests made to the CDHPR for a copy or reproduction of a completed application.
3. CDHPR reserves the right to refuse any application for Single Registration, as well as correct or revoke any CDHPR Registration Certificate or Pedigree at any time.
4. Attach photocopies of your dog's registration certificate and three generation pedigree issued by a CDHPR acknowledged registry. Single registration rules and requirements may vary according to the breed, please visit the CDHPR website for complete registration requirements. You may also contact the CDHPR via email at info@cdhpr.com or call (269) 381-2183 for assistance by phone.
5. All applications for Single Registration into the CDHPR must be accompanied by three (3) color photos, one taken from the front and one taken from each side in profile, in a standing position, to be considered for registration.
6. Any sire or dam used in a breeding program must be DNA profiled through the CDHPR before the litter application will be processed.
